Amawari, the Lord of Kimutaka Spirit Tickets Now Available!

The play unfolds with two teens, curious to see whether a rumor of being able to see a “mystical village festival” is true, wander around the site of the Katsuren castle ruins late one night. Out of nowhere, a historical spirit, appears and gives them an ancient scroll that holds the truth of "Amawari no Ran" (Amawari's revolt). The children of Kimutaka read through the scroll and slowly reveal the truth of Amawari, a king who fought for his people but was wrongly portrayed in the darkness of the history as a tyrannical enemy seeking to overthrow neighboring kingdoms. The stage will be set for unveiling of the story of Katsuren 1460 years ago, a story of a hero who lived in the age of disorder.

Directed by Daiichi Hirata, over 80 junior high and high school students from Okinawa are proud to perform in Hawaii, celebrating the show's 10th anniversary. Click here for event poster.
